Anchor Deep

There is a story of a man who had just brought a boat and kept it in the harbor on the coast of Florida. A hurricane warning went into effect, the storm was brewing just off the coast and was about to hit land. He didn't know what to do.

He made a sizable investment in this boat, and he didn't want to lose it, so he asked for advice.

A friend, who had experience with both boats and hurricanes gave him this advice. "Don't attempt to tie the boat to the dock or anything on land. It will be torn to pieces.

Here's what you need to do. Your only hope is to anchor deep. Take four anchors and drop them deep and the boat will ride out the storm." That's good advice spiritually as well.

If you don't want to drift away, if you want your life to mean something, if you want to leave your children an example of what it means to be a Christian, anchor deep in your fellowship with Christ.

Hebrews 6:19-20 - 19 We have this as a sure and steadfast anchor of the soul, a hope that enters into the inner place behind the curtain, 20 where Jesus has gone as a forerunner on our behalf, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.
