Finding Involvement

Being involved in the church will require you to love people who are difficult to love. Being involved in the church may require you to work with people who are difficult to work with. Being involved in the church may cost you some of your friends, who don't see the importance of being active in a local church. Being involved in the church may require you to make some sacrifices. You may have to give up some of the other things you have been doing, in order to have the time to do what God wants you to do. Let's face it, being involved in the life and ministry of the church requires a lot of time and a lot of dedication.

A man called the minister of a certain church and told him that he wanted to become a member of his church. But the man went on to tell the minister that he would not be at worship every week, that he was not going to study the Bible, that he had no desire to visit the sick or to serve as a Sunday School teacher or member of any committee in the church.

After hearing what the man had to say, the minister commended him for his desire to be a church member but told him the church he was looking for was in another part of town. The man wrote down the address, thanked the minister and hung up the phone.

He then decided to go find the church the minister had told him about. When he arrived at the address, the man came face to face with the result of his own attitude of not wanting to be involved...There standing in front of him was an abandoned church building that was all boarded up and ready to be demolished.

1 John 5:3-5 - For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome. For everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is it that overcomes the world except the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?
