Thank You Lord

Lord, thank you for the life you have given me.

Upon rising in the morning, I worship the Lord of lords, the God of all gods, and the King of kings...and You call me by name.

I think back to the day I met You and how You welcomed me with open arms.

You received this prodigal son without hesitation.

For all these reasons and many more, I give You Thanks.

I offer my life up to You and Your Service.

I can think of no greater way to live than to consider each day a holy, living sacrifice to you.

May Your will be done through the course of my days.

Psalms 136:1-3:

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
for his steadfast love endures forever.
Give thanks to the God of gods,
for his steadfast love endures forever.
Give thanks to the Lord of lords,
for his steadfast love endures forever
