Integrity on a Bus

One Sunday a minister preached a sermon on honesty. Monday morning, he took the bus to get to his office. He paid the fare, and the bus driver gave him back too much change.

During the rest of the journey, the minister was rationalizing how God had provided him with some extra money he needed for the week. But he just could not live with himself, so before he got off the bus, he proceeded to give back the extra money and said to the driver, "You have made a mistake. You've given me too much change."

The driver smiled and said, "There was no mistake. I was at your church yesterday and heard you preach on honesty. So, I decided to put you to a test this morning."

"It is not what men eat but what they digest that makes them strong;
Not what we gain but what we save that makes us rich;
Not what we read but what we remember that makes us learned;
Not what we preach but what we practice that makes us Christians."
Sir Francis Bacon

Romans 12:1-2 - Therefore, I urge you, brothers and sisters, in view of God's mercy, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God—this is your true and proper worship. 2 Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.
