Grandfather and Grandson

A Grandfather was talking to his grandson. He asked him when he was going to graduate from high school. He said this spring.

The grandfather asked, "What are you going to do then?"

The grandson said, "I want to go to college."

The grandfather asked what then. He said, "I want to become a doctor, so I will have to go on to medical school."

Persistently, the grandfather asked, "What then?" He said, well, I will have to complete my residency.

The grandfather asked, "What then?" "Well, I guess I will begin my medical practice."

The grandfather asked, "What then?" The grandson said, "Well, I guess I will settle down, get married, and have a family."

The grandfather again asked, "What then?" Well, I suppose I will live, grow old, and die.

The grandfather again asked, "What then?" Well, I suppose that I will go meet my God."

The grandfather said, "Well I was wondering when you were going to fit Him in your schedule of life."

2 Peter 3:8-9 - But do not overlook this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow to fulfill his promise as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should reach repentance.
